MARTIN L. KING JR. HOLIDAY EVENTS

Remember, Celebrate, Act - A Day On, Not a Day OffThe Equal Opportunity and Diversity Management Division (EODM) has compiled a listing of local events and cultural programs that are being held in celebration of the life of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Events are free and open to the public except where noted.

Fort Davis Community Center Volunteer Effort. 1/17/2011, 9:30 am-1:00 pm. Fort Davis Community Center 1400 41st St. SE Washington, DC.
Volunteer in the Fort Davis Community Center, a Monday-Friday free recreation center for youth, adults, and seniors in the Ward 7 area. Tasks include repainting doors, touching up paint in the gym, organizing books in the reading room/library, and working with murals.

King Across the Ages. 1/17/2011, 8:30 am-1:00 pm, performance program begins at 2 pm. National Cathedral. 3101 Wisconsin Ave. NW Washington, DC.
Celebration includes musical performances, dance performances, interfaith dialogue, and service projects. Cost of admission is a canned food donation or a new children's book.

Let Freedom Ring Choir featuring Patti LaBelle 1/17/2011, 6:00 pm The Kennedy Center 2700 F St. NW Washington, DC. A tribute to the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., which includes a free musical performance featuring Patti LaBelle, and a tribute to Joseph Lowery.

Martin Luther King Jr. Day of Service- http://mlkday.gov/
Use this website to find a service project in any community by entering an address or zip code.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and Nonviolence National Museum of American History The National Mall, Washington, DC. Explore the legacy of Martin Luther King Jr. with a collection of displays from the civil rights movement.

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s Birthday Tribute and Celebration. 1/17/2011, 4:00 pm Music Center at Strathmore

Dr. Martin Luther King , Jr. Civil Rights Film Festival 1/7/2011 - 1/15/2011 Frederick Douglass National Historic Site A film festival exploring the legacies of people who worked for civil rights. The program is free to the public.